"TWELFTH NIGHT"

Splendidly Produced by Devereaux
Players—Reception to Miss Holton
Largely Attended

Mr. Clifford Devereaux and his excellent company presented "Twelfth Night," at Beechwood Park, Tuesday evening and the production was worthy of highest praise.

Miss Mary Ward Holton as Olivia was splendid and that her efforts were appreciated by her host of admirers was demonstrated by the applause she received at every appearance. Miss Holton has indeed won an enviable reputation as a Shakespearean actress and her performance in "Twelfth Night" only adds to her previous laurels.

Mr. Clifford Devereaux's interpretation of Sebastian was excellent and explains why he has devoted his talents to Shakespearean roles.

The whole production was exceedingly meritorious and the Women's Club is to be congratulated upon for the high order of entertainment they provided for the lovers of art and literature.

After the performance a reception was held in honor of Miss Mary Ward Holton, a talented member of the Devereaux Company who, because of her former residence in this county, has a host of friends here, and who, by her charming grace and the excellent manner in which she carried off the difficult roles assigned to her, has won the admiration and esteem of every one.

The large number who attended paid just tribute to Miss Holton's ability in her chosen profession and evidenced the high esteem in which she is held by all who have had the pleasure of seeing her.

TOURING PARTY ARRIVES HOME

GREAT GAME

Maysville's New Team Is One To Be Proud Of—At Last The Fans Of This City Have A Real Team—Tuesday's Exhibition One Of The Best Ever Seen Here—"Our Boys" Lost By The Break In Luck.

At last the fans of this city have what they have been looking for—a real base ball team. Tuesday's game showed in big type that the team that is to represent Maysville in the Ohio State League this season is of the best material and will give any team in the league a hot race for the pennant. High class ball was played by every member of the aggregation and only the good luck of the Charleston team kept Maysville from walking off with the game. Many features were pulled by both teams among which was the catch of short stop Daubert of the Charleston's in the second inning when he took a hot one knocked by Henderson, the big first baseman of the locals. This play was one of the best witnessed on the local diamond for several years. Another thriller was staged in the seventh inning when Nutter, the little center fielder of the visitors, robbed Manager Josh Devore of a sure homer by his sensational catch. Following is the score play by play:

FIRST INNING

CHARLESTON—Biddy Beers, the snuffing manager of the visitors, petitioned McGraynor for pass. Petition granted. Kauffendoff attempted to bunt the pill but flew to Henderson of the locals, who snaped it to Tipton for a double, catching Beers off first. This play took the crowd by storm. Powell knocked a fast grounder through short, but was left on the initial bag when Daubert elevated to H. Devore. No runs. One hit. No errors.

MAYSVILLE—Tipton led off with a hit through short for one bag. Emmet eared the ozone three times and retired in favor of PeBerry, who hit a slow one to Curtis, who threw to Hudson for the out. Tipton advancing on the play. Manager Josh Devore came to the bat amid much applause and hit to Troutwine for the third out. No runs. One hit. No errors.

SECOND INNING

CHARLESTON—McCullough singled over the keystone bag. Troutwine was hit by McGraynor, forcing McCullough to second. Curtis sacrificed. Emmet to Henderson. Hudson breezed, while Henderson acroplanned to Brown. No runs. One hit. No errors.

MAYSVILLE—H. Devore flew out to Kauffendoff. McGraynor slamed one through Troutwine for a single. Henderson knocked a hot one to Daubert who made a great catch and forced a double. Daubert to Henderson, retiring the side. No runs. One hit. No errors.

THIRD INNING

CHARLESTON—Beers flew to Henderson. Nutter batting for Kauffendoff, beat out an infield grounder to Tipton, who was too slow to catch the fast little Charleston player. Powell lifted to H. Devore, Nutter stole on the next ball. Daubert whiffed the vapor. No runs. No hits. One error.

MAYSVILLE—Kelly breezed. Brown popped to Daubert. Tipton hoisted to Nutter. No runs. No hits. No errors.

FOURTH INNING

CHARLESTON—McCullough flew to Henderson. Troutwine lifted to Manager Devore. Curtis took an excursion to first. Hudson fled to Tipton. No runs. No hits. No errors.

MAYSVILLE—Emmet hit to short. Daubert to Hudson. DeBerry poled one through short for a trip to the keystone bag. Henderson in trying to catch DeBerry at second throw wild and DeBerry romped to third. Manager Devore lifted to Hudson. H. Devore grounded to Hudson.

FIFTH INNING

CHARLESTON—Henderson grounded to Kelly, who threw him out at first. Beers paraded. Nutter hit for a single over the keystone bag, Beers advancing to second. Powell's fly fell safe after an Alfonso-Gaston stunt by Tipton and Henderson, and Powell perched on first filling the bags. Daubert grounded to Kelly, who throw him out at first. Beers scoring on the play. McCullough rolled to McGraynor, to Henderson. One run. Two hits. No errors.

MAYSVILLE—McGraynor sent a fifty single through second. Henderson knocked to Daubert forcing McGraynor. Kelly reached first on Daubert's boot of an easy chace. Kelly stole second and in the throw Unpro Kane was hit in the back. Brown grounded to Troutwine to Hudson. No runs. One hit. One error.

SIXTH INNING

CHARLESTON—Troutwine's fly fell safe. Alfonso and Gaston again. Curtis walked, forcing Troutwine to second. Hudson lifted a foul to DeBerry. Henderson followed suit to Tipton.

WILD AUTOISTS

The streets of this city are being turned into race courses by autoists and this vicious practice has reached a stage where it is dangerous to cross a street. If one is not hit he is covered with dust or mud just as the weather conditions may be at the time he makes his dare devil attempt to peacefully cross the street. Tuesday morning a citizen was bespattered with mud splashed by a speeding auto and his shirt was soiled to such an extent that it was unfit for wear.

A DRESS CARNIVAL

The unusually cool spring and early summer retarded the sale of Hugerle dresses, so we find our stock larger than it has ever been in mid-summer. The consequence is re-pricing at figures that are of great importance to you in point of economy. We also present a stock so generous in size, choosing from it will be a pleasure. It is a case of getting what you want instead of taking what you can get. Values in all white and in many pretty colors. A few white nets. Every dress is absolutely in fashion and has been carefully kept in dust proof cases so it shows no trace of handling but is as fresh as the day it was unpacked. As a matter of fact these pretty dresses "measure up" to their advertising. They are even better than we say they are, because we have to curb our enthusiasm, lest we seem to exaggerate.

ACT PROMPTLY FOR THESE ARE QUICK SELLING VALUES

As prices are so varied and there are scarcely two dresses alike we can only make the general statement that reductions are as follows:

$12.50 Dresses $7.50.	$6.50 Dresses $3.50.
$10.00 Dresses $5.50.	$5.00 Dresses $2.98.
$ 8.50 Dresses $4.98.	$4.00 Dresses $2.50.

NEUTRALITY'S LOSSES.

Along with rumors that Holland may take a hand in the war or, at least, offer herself as a convenient highway for British troops, news from Rotterdam is significant.

Trade at this busy shipping center has suffered desperately. A year ago the ships that cleared each week in and out of her channels averaged 250. Now the weekly business is down to ninety. The Rotterdam Chamber of Commerce declares "the shipping at this port has been reduced to such an extent that, it may be stated, it will not recover its former status in less than five years. It is feared that 1915 will be even more unfavorable if this tremendous universal struggle is not terminated."

Would it be strange if the thrifty Dutch were eager to see it terminated? In the present generation Rotterdam has spent $24,000,000 on harbor and waterway improvements. Before the war her commerce was increasing with every month. Considerations like these put a sore strain on neutrality. Maybe the Germans knew what they were doing when, so it is said, they rearranged the forts of Liege to face the Dutch frontier.

IN PASSING

Did you ever pass a little kid on the street and have him gaze wistfully up at you until you had passed by, and then turn around and find him still looking at you with those appealing little eyes? Indeed you have, and it is an every day occurrence right here in this town. It wouldn't do us grown-ups, a bit of harm to give a kindly word to those little fellows as we meet them, and it would do them a world of good. A bright smile and a cheerful word to them will flood their hearts with the sunshine of life and lift them up to that higher plane which creates men among men.

The other day Henry Ford entertained his business associates by carving a financial melon which represented $48,000,000 in dividends. If the paragraphers can pull any jokes out of that we would like to see them do it.

It is a capital mistake to think that it is always the pile-driver that makes the biggest hit.

Mr. Edward Barber and Miss Mary Strop were married at Hoosick Falls the other day, and we are willing to bet ten to one that in the course of a few years they will have some little shavers in the house.

The Hon. Richmond P. Hobson announces that he will not be a candidate for President. We are happy to say that at the time of going to press the nation was rallying rapidly and gave every promise of surviving the terrible shock.

Paris reports that in Northern France the men in the trenches are so covered with mud as to be scarcely recognizable. If any of them have ever been candidates in a political campaign in this country they will not mind it at all.

The harder our venerable Uncle Sam tries to be neutral the more frequently some fellow comes along and steps on his corn.

A rolling stone gathers no moss it is true, but who wants to go around all covered with moss.

Hard On the Deacon.

The country newspaper man was impressed with the bulletin-board idea and when he went back to Hickory Hollow rigged up a board and placed it in front of his office.

It was a long time before he could use it, though. Finally an opportunity came. One morning there appeared on the bulletin board the notice, "Deacon Jones seriously ill."

It was followed a few hours later with the chalked-up announcement, "11 a. m., Deacon Jones is sinking."

Later in the day there appeared this announcement, "Deacon Jones passed away to heaven at 2 p. m."

A traveling man happened to be passing the office of the country paper late that afternoon and observing the bulletin board and its announcement, added this: "Great excitement in heaven. Deacon Jones has not arrived yet."—Louisville Times.

What It Meant

"Let me see some of your black kid gloves," said a lady to a shop assistant, according to Grit.

"These are not the latest style, are they?" asked the lady when the gloves were produced.

"Yes, madam," replied the shop woman. "We have had them in stock only two days."

"I didn't think they were, because the fashion paper says black kids have tan stitches and the vice versa. I see the tan stitches, but not the vice versa."

The shop woman explained that vice versa was French for seven buttons, so she bought three pairs.

GOOD HOUSEKEEPING IS THE ROAD TO ECONOMY.

Some Notes on Afternoon Tea
Receptions, luncheons and dinners are pleasant ways of paying social debts in a wholesome manner, but for pleasurable visiting nothing equals the afternoon tea.

This occasion may be formal or otherwise, with cozy things passed along with the freshly brewed tea. Plain bread and butter sandwiches, small cakes and cookies or fruit punch and home-made cake or lemon tea and sweet sandwiches make a friendly excuse for calling a simple gathering a "tea."

If a large number of specially invited guests are to be served you will need flowers, color schemes and an elaborate service. Usually there are special friends who delight to "pour" and these may be given charge of the important part of the affair. Little tables are placed for them if the service is to be a la buffet, and the tea service is arranged upon it. Other friends may assist in serving or you may have maid service.

Sometimes large tables are used with tea service at one end and chocolate at the other and the other refreshments arranged daintily between. Or the guests fill the dining room and are served standing, again small tables are brought to various groups. These problems decide themselves when you know how many persons are to be present and what the occasion is.

This month strawberry festivals and teas are in high favor. For it you may have, with little trouble, any or all of these:

Cold Tongue. Cold Ham. Cold Chicken. Saratoga Chips. Refreshments. Wafers. Sandwiches. Individual Sweet Shortcakes. Strawberries and Cream. Charlotte With Strawberry Filling. Strawberry Tarts. Strawberry Biscuits. Strawberries and Whipped Cream. Strawberry Ice Cream. Fruit Salad with Strawberries. Strawberry sherbert is a good substitute for tea in hot days and it is made by crushing one quart of berries through a sieve fine enough to retain the seeds; to this pulp add four cups of sugar, the juice of two lemons, three pints of ice water and a few perfectly ripe berries. Freeze lightly or add crushed ice.

If a large number of callers must be served quickly you may have a frappe served in the reception hall while servants pass the trays and other refreshments. These may be tiny sandwiches, a salad or not, olives, nuts and leers or sweets.

HARDSHIPS INFLICTED ON AMERICA

London, July 19.—Charles B. Pray, of Flint, Mich., who reached London after escaping from a German concentration camp in which he had been held since October, submitted today to Robert P. Skinner, American Consul General, an affidavit describing his experiences. Mr. Skinner forwarded the affidavit to the State Department at Washington.

Mr. Pray was in Germany, installing self-starters on automobiles, when the war began. German officers visited his rooms and declared him to be an Englishman, notwithstanding the fact, he says, that he exhibited a passport and a birth certificate. He was sent to the concentration camp at Mauthausen, and while there made unsuccessful efforts to communicate with the American consulate. Thence he was transferred to Wuernttemberg. Mr. Pray asserts that while in Wuernttemberg he was compelled to perform hard labor, after having refused to work on military automobiles.

He made his escape from the concentration camp on May 11, and walked across France. He took ship to Avonmouth, whence he walked to London, earning enough money on the way to obtain food by doing odd jobs. He was destitute and emaciated when he reached here.

The American Relief Committee offered to pay Mr. Pray's way home, but he says he can obtain work here and prefers to pay his own expenses.

VILLA FORCES ENGAGED

Nogales, Ariz., July 19.—It is reported here tonight that a Villa force of 2,500, sent from Nogales, Sonora, to halt the Carranza movement toward Cananea, is engaged in battle 11 miles from Cananea. Maytorena's heavy artillery is said to have arrived from Guaymas.

Washington, July 19.—Mexico City again is threatened with attack, and the Carranza forces under General Gonzales, who drove the Zapata army from the capital 10 days ago, have marched hurriedly northward to engage an advancing Villa column off cavalry, believed to be planning a junction with the Zapata troops, now menacing communication with Vera Cruz.

State Department dispatches today announced that General Gonzalez, with most of his army, had evacuated Mexico City yesterday, turning the Government over to the civil authorities.

This was just preceded by advice that General Villa's flying column, which circled Obregon's forces after the battle of Aguas Calientes and captured Juarez, had taken possession of Pachuca, within 40 miles of Mexico City, and was marching on the capital.

AEROPLANES FOR MEXICO

Dayton, Ohio, July 19.—J. S. Berger, purchasing agent for a faction in Mexico, today placed an order for 15 aeroplanes with a company in this city. The machines will be of the combination monoplane-biplane type, which is said to have proved its usefulness in warfare, and will be completed in two weeks. Twelve of the aeroplanes are for General Carranza. The destination of the others was not announced.

POSITIVE PROOF

Should Convince the Greatest Skeptic in Maysville

Because it's the evidence of a Maysville citizen.

Testimony easily investigated.

The strongest endorsement of merit. The best proof. Read it:

Mrs. Della Luneford, 328 E. Front St., Maysville, says: "I attribute kidney trouble to a strain. I had sharp, shooting pains through my kidneys and a dragging-down feeling through my hips. I had dull headaches and dizzy spells and often if I had not caught hold of something for support, I would have fallen. I was in that condition for several years, up one week and in bed the next. I finally began to notice symptoms of dropsy. My feet began to swell and my hands were at times the same way. Finally, I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me."

OVER THREE YEARS LATER Mrs. Luneford said: "Doan's Kidney Pills completely and permanently cured me and I am glad to confirm it all I said in their praise before."

Paris, July 19.—A telegram from a Rome news agency says that a refugee who has reached Rome from Pola, the Austrian naval base, says two Austrian submarines which left to reconnoiter the Italian coast, have not returned and are believed to have been lost. One of the submarines had a crew of 20, the other a crew of 40. Their supplies of gasoline were sufficient for only four days.

"ALL EUROPE TO TREMBLE!"
Petrograd, July 19.—News is current here that Emperor William has telegraphed to his sister, the Queen of Greece, to the effect that he "has paralyzed Russia for at least six months to come, and is on the eve of delivering a coup on the western front that will make all Europe tremble."

Russia has not yet become aware of any symptoms of paralysis, but rather the contrary, for so far as evidence points to the Germanic plans having succeeded in no other sense than the acquisition of territory, otherwise overloading themselves with immense areas of space that are an obstacle instead of a help.

STEAM MAY BE USED

By Germans on Large Submarines, Naval Experts Believe

Washington, July 19.—Germany may have solved the big problem of submarine propulsion by the use of steam, according to a rumor to which officers of the Navy League attach importance.

Those familiar with submarine construction say that the pictures of boats would seem to indicate that Germany is using steam.

Expert engineers and builders state that it is feasible to build a submarine destroyer equipped with oil-burning boilers, turbines and reduction gear.

ULTIMATUM TO ROMANIA

Discussed by the Austrian and Hungarian Cabinets

Paris, July 19.—A dispatch from Bucharest says that at a joint meeting of the Hungarians and Austrian Cabinets, the Emperor presiding, the question of delivering an ultimatum to Roumania was discussed.

Count Tizla, it is stated, insisted on an ultimatum or a declaration of war. Both the Emperors, however, are believed to have opposed an ultimatum, the German Emperor especially preferring to pacify Roumania by compensation at the expense of Austria.

London, July 19.—The total casualties of the Dardanelles expeditionary force to date in killed, wounded and missing have been 42,484 officers and men, Premier Asquith told the House of Commons today.

The total includes both naval and military branches of the service.

Out of an aggregate of 8,084 casualties among aggregate of 8,084 casualties, the killed numbered 1,933.

Brussels, July 19.—General Von Bissing, Governor-General of Belgium, promulgated an order today for the punishment of any Belgian between the ages of 16 and 40 who leaves the state to serve in any capacity for a country at war with Germany. The penalty provided is a fine of 10,000 marks ($2,500) or five years' imprisonment, or both.

AMMUNITION IS SEIZED

New Orleans, July 19.—United States customs officials have seized here 61,000 rounds of rifle ammunition consigned to General Carranza, it became known tonight. It also was said that a customs officer had been placed aboard the Carranza gunboat Macavio Herrera, in port here, to prevent neutrality violations.

LITTLE IDEAS BRING BIG RESULTS.

Sennfelder and Lithography
The invention, or more properly the discovery of lithography claims a high rank among those of the present age on account of its extensive usefulness. The honor of the invention belongs to Alois Sennfelder, originally a performer at the Theater Royal of Munich. He had conceived the idea of etching on stone instead of on copper, and was proceeding to make the experiment, when an accidental discovery gave a more beneficial turn to his speculations. This was the discovery of the lithographic art.

Sennfelder had just succeeded, in his little laboratory, in polishing a stone plate which he intended to cover with etching ground, when his mother entered the room and desired him to write her a bill for the washerwoman, who was waiting for the linen. He happened not to have even the smallest slip of paper at hand, as his stock had been entirely exhausted by taking proof impressions from the stones; nor was there even a drop of ink in the inkstand. As the matter would not admit of delay, and he had no body in the house to send for a supply of the deficient materials, he resolved to write the bill with his ink prepared of wax, soap and lamp-black, on the stone which he had just polished, and from which he could copy it at leisure.

A short time afterwards, as he attempted to wipe the writing from the stone, the idea came upon him suddenly to try what would be the effect of such a writing with his prepared ink, if he were to blot it on the stone with aqua fortis; and whether, perhaps, it might not be possible to apply printing ink to it in the same way as to wood engravings, and to make impressions from it.

Sennfelder surrounded the stone with a border of wax, and applied aqua fortis, by which in a few minutes the writing was raised. Printing ink was then applied with a common printer's ball, impressions were taken off, and the practicability of the important art of lithography thus was fully established.

The first application of the art to purposes of usefulness unconnected with the fine arts, was made by the Duke of Wellington in the Peninsula War for the purpose of rapidly multiplying copies of general orders, instructions, etc., and accompanying them with sketches of positions.

When Sennfelder discovered lithography he knew he had hit upon a great invention, but even now he was not permitted to turn it to immediate account. He would require a press, and a stock of paper, ink, stones, etc., and he was without money. In his dilemma he offered to enlist in the army as a substitute for a friend who promised him a premium of 200 florins; and with this object he went with a party of recruits to Ingolstadt, but he was rejected because he was not a native of Bavaria. A musician named Glaisman came to his aid at this juncture and together they issued some pieces of music, in 1796, these being the first lithographic prints established.

Then the elector, Charles Theodore, sent them a present of 100 florins, and the Academy of Science made him the munificent grant of twelve florins, with an intimation that since, according to his own statement, the expense of the press did not exceed six florins, "it was hoped that a compensation, of double that amount would satisfy his expectations."

Much time was spent upon new presses, and so many failures resulted that Sennfelder's invention came to be regarded in many quarters with disfavor. But he was not discouraged. He persevered all the more and at last overcame his difficulties.

He successfully invented the ink, chalk, etching, transfer and wood-cut processes; introduced lithography in colors, and many other improvements in the art of his invention. He now reaped reward of his ingenuity, and made money. A royal lithographic establishment was formed, and he was appointed to its superintendence with a salary of 1500 florins, with liberty to carry on his private enterprise at the same time.

For the rest of his life Sennfelder was in comfortable circumstances; and in 1819 he published a complete discourse of all the secrets of the various lithographic processes, esteeming himself happy in seeing during his lifetime the value of his invention so universally appreciated. He died in Munich on the twenty-sixth of February, 1834.

GERMANY MUST FIGHT TO GAIN OPEN SEAS

Instead of Using American Affairs as Club—Note To London Arrives

London, July 19.—The new American note on shipping, which outlines the standpoint of the United States in Prize Court procedure, was received at the Foreign Office today. The note has not yet been published here.

Washington, July 19.—Germany will be told substantially in the not now being prepared at the State Department and the White House that she must not use the present situation as a club to hit Great Britain or to force the American Government to settle her controversies with the English Government.

This decision, made today, stands out pre-eminently as the one new definite statement of the attitude on the part of the United States toward Germany. Officials say it will appear in the forthcoming restatement of the case of the United States to Germany on the Lusitania tragedy and all connected subjects.

President Wilson, who returned here today, lost no time in getting the written views of the legal experts of the State Department and memoranda from Secretary of State Lansing concerning the reply.

The President and his new premier discussed the American-Germany situation for about an hour this morning. The President made no comment on the conference except to indicate it was his desire that there should be no speculation on the forthcoming reply. This much is, nevertheless, known as coming from official sources.

Physical Facts Passed Up.

The President and the Secretary of State had no reason again to discuss the physical facts with respect to the Lusitania. The history of that tragedy is complete and unchangeable so far as facts are concerned.

The subjects of discussion between the President and Mr. Lansing, it is asserted, were solely on the legal aspects of the issue between the two countries.

The legal arguments were presented to the President in documents voluminous enough to fill the portfolio of the Secretary of State, which he took to the White House. In addition to these Mr. Lansing also had the views of the German Ambassador as outlined in the recent conversations between them at the State Department. The subject matter of these conversations or oral arguments by the Ambassador probably will never be made public, but it is admitted by all officials that the Ambassador had undoubtedly official warrant for the expression of his views, and that therefore they must be considered in the final audit.

A most capable authority, in answer to a question as to what the German note meant to the White House in plain language, said:

"The German reply, stripped of unnecessary language, is simply that the operations of her submarines are justified as reprisals against Great Britain. In other words, that neutrals must keep out of the war zones because they have no right there under international law."

"Have Absolute Right to Sail"

"The answer of the United States to that is that we have the absolute right to send out our ships to German ports and to British ports unless we are shut out by processes recognized by international law."

"Germany is, therefore, to be advised once more of our position as thus outlined, and we are to await her reply."

HOMES TO BE SET ON SHIPS CARRYING SUPPLIES TO ALLIES

New York, July 19.—Another warning came today from "Pearce," the mysterious New Orleans letter writer, whose warning that bombs had been placed on board the British steamships Baron Napier and Howth Castle caused apprehension.

In a letter to the Brooklyn Daily Eagle "Pearce" announced that the band whose aim is the planting of bombs in the cargoes of vessels not flying the American flag and steaming from American ports with supplies for the allies had extended its operations to Brooklyn.

The letter was mailed at New Orleans on Friday. Neither the envelope nor the paper bears any mark to help in the search for the sender.

STATIONS ARE DESTROYED

And Other Property Is Looted By Zapatistas Around Puebla

Puebla, Mexico, Saturday, July 10, via Key West, Fla., July 19 (delayed in transmission).—Conditions in the region between Vera Cruz and Puebla (63 miles southeast of the City of Mexico) are greatly unsettled, and there has been much looting and destruction of property. On the Inter-oceanic Railroad all stations have been destroyed between Vera Cruz and Jalapa, 60 miles inland. In one instance the station agent and telegraph operator were killed.

On the British-owned broad-gauge railroad the Zapata forces are becoming bolder. There has been shooting in the outskirts of Orizaba and Cordova. Trains are delayed, and frequently passengers, including Americans, are compelled to lie on the floors of cars while bandits shoot through the windows of passing trains.

In response to the protest of John R. Silliman, President Wilson's agent in Mexico, against destruction of foreign-owned property, General Carranza stationed a guard at the large American-owned sugar plantation at Protero. Zapata troops went to the plantation and hanged the Carranza men to a tree.

Although Mexico City has been cut off from direct communication with Puebla for three weeks, couriers with newspaper dispatches have been arriving here intermittently. Sometimes the messages are seized by soldiers and destroyed, as both sides seem unwilling that news of conditions in Mexico City become public.

Reports from the state of Oaxaca, which early in June declared its independence of the rest of Mexico until general peace is restored, say the people there are enjoying comparative prosperity. The state has coined its own money and notice has been served that the people will resist invasion by any faction.

STRIKE AT KRUPP WORKS

Is Imminent, Say Reports To Swiss—Drastic Action Threatened

Geneva, Switzerland, July 19.—An important meeting was held at Essen yesterday, according to advices received at Basel, between the administration of the Krupp Gun Works and the representatives of the workmen, in order to settle the dispute which has arisen over the demands of the men for an increase in wages.

Directly and indirectly about 100,000 men are involved. Minor cases in which machinery has been destroyed have been reported.

The military authorities before the meeting, the Basel advices say, warned both sides that unless an immediate arrangement was reached drastic measures would be employed.

The Krupp officials are understood to have granted a portion of the demands of the employees, which has brought about a temporary peace, but the workmen still appear to be unsatisfied and many have left the works. A strike would greatly affect the supply of munitions, and for this reason the military has adopted rigorous precautions.

THREE THOUSAND MEN

Take Advantage of Amnesty Offer Made By Carranza

San Antonio, Texas, July 19.—Three the Carranza faction in detainment thousand soldiers who have been opposing the Carranza faction in Mexico have embraced the amnesty offered to all soldiers and citizens by General Pablo Gonzalez, and 15,000 more are expected to lay down their arms before the end of this week. It was claimed in a Mexico City dispatch made public tonight by the Carranza Consulate here.

Terms of the amnesty proclamation, it was said, provided that each soldier surrendering his arms should receive $30 and free transportation to his home, while each cavalryman surrendering his horse was to be given a bonus of $100.

Persons excluded from the amnesty are those "directly responsible for the military rebellion of February 19, which resulted in the overthrow of President Madero."

Laredo, Texas, July 19.—Dr. R. R. He said that Americans with any considerable amount of money in their possession are under suspicion and are annoyed.

Notes

Daily Special—Fans are requested not to "Josh" Manager Devore.

Charleston is the attraction again this afternoon. Game called at 3:15 sharp.

Don't forget that today is "Boosters' Day." Buy a ticket for $1 and go out and help the boys along.

Our old friend Chris Brown had the fever so bad that he rode down from Concord on a freight train to see the game.

Manager Biddy Beers of the Senators, first man up, walked, but was immediately doubled off first when Coffordoff dropped one into Henderson's hands.

McGraynor pitched a steady game and should have won. He had plenty of steam and a fine assortment of curves. In several innings he pulled the fat out of the fire when it seemed as if the visitors would score. With a little better support the score would have been 0 to 0. Besides being a good pitcher McGraynor is a good hitter, getting two hits out of three trips to the plate.

Steve Kane handled the indicator yesterday and gave universal satisfaction. He is on the square and gives out his decisions as he sees them, regardless of any criticism of the fans.

Maysville is a sporty town. When Daubert and Nutter made those wonderful catches the fans certainly did give them the "hand" even though "our boys" did lose the game. That's what we call true sport.

Renewed interest in organized base ball was shown here in less than 24 hours. We get the team Monday afternoon and Tuesday more than 400 saw "our boys" play.

Owners Russell and Watkins felt much encouraged over the attendance yesterday. Keep it up fans, it makes the going good.

There is not a man on our team who is over 23 years old, except Manager Devore. Some kids, eh.

One member of the Maysville club put on his first pair of base ball shoes three weeks ago. Can you guess who he is?

Some Firsts of the Opener
Beers got first walk.

Henderson of Maysville got first put out.

Henderson and Tipton got first double play.

Powell got first hit.

Emmet got first sacrifice hit.

Tipton first to get to second base.

Troutman got first base on balls.

McCullough first to get to third base.

Nutter first to steal a base.

CAPTURED NEGRO

Says He was Forced to Shoot at Officer Bloomhuff by Companion—
Says Dead Negro Was Bad Man

The local officers arrived in this city from Vanceburg Tuesday morning on C. & O. train No. 17 with Grant Howard, the negro who escaped in the shooting fray between Officer Dudley Bloomhuff, Jerry Lewis, of Augusta, Ga., and himself, in which Lewis was shot and later died from his wounds. Howard was captured at Vanceburg by a posse of citizens headed by Sheriff W. T. Stone and Deputies James Lee and A. J. Rayborn. He got off the train at Vanceburg where he met a crowd of citizens and becoming frightened at the size of the crowd he started to run. The posse thinking that he was trying to get away fired several shots at him and he ran into cover in a swamp where he was later found. He had the 44-caliber pistol which was taken from the Lewis negro, and while he did not have the 38 with which he shot at Officer Bloomhuff, the gun was found in the bushes later by the Vanceburg police with six chambers loaded, which showed that Howard was not going to be caught unprepared. Chief of Police James Mackey and Special Agent Stewart of the C. & O. arrived at Vanceburg and taking charge of the prisoner returned with him to this city Tuesday morning where they placed him in jail. When seen by a representative of The Ledger, Howard said his name was not Braxton as given by the dead negro and told the following: "Lewis and I worked at Mulberry, Ohio, on the new road they are building there. Work became slack and a man I knew said he could give me a job at Vanceburg if I got there. I told Lewis and we started for the place. While coming on the train from Cincinnati to this place Lewis told me if I did not do as he told me to he would kill me and this scared me as I knew he was a bad nigger, and always carried a gun on him. I had my gun too but had it only as I was leaving Mulberry and did not want to leave it there. When we got to Maysville we got off the train and I sat down besides the track. A policeman came along and said something to us and Lewis answered back to him and then started away shooting at him. I did not shoot till I thought that if I did not Lewis would carry out his threat to kill me. I fired two shots at the policeman and started to run, seeing Lewis lie down I said to him, 'Are you hurt pal,' and he answered he was shot all over. I then asked him if I should take the gun he had and he said, 'Yes, as I can't go no farther. Good-bye Bo,' then I ran to the front of the train and went on up the road to Vanceburg where they got me. This is the first time I was ever in jail." Howard's story is rather flimsy in places and no doubt he is also a bad character.

He will be given trial in a few days.

The World's Lowest Priced Knight Motored Car

THIS announces the greatest achievement in the history of the automobile business.

Practically every royal and titled family in Europe owns one or more Knight motored cars.

The Willys-Knight has the same advantages and is just as efficient as those costly European Knight cars.

The Knight is the automobile motor that revolutionized the entire motor car industry of Europe.

The Knight type motor is the nearest approach to 100% efficiency.

As we build more cars in a single week than most European manufacturers build in a whole year, we are able to utilize every modern manufacturing economy.

The Daimler of England, the Panhard of France, the Mercedes of Germany, the Minerva of Belgium—in fact practically all of the costly European cars—are equipped with the famous Knight type motor.

This motor differs from other motors in that where all others deteriorate with use, this improves; to all others carbon is harmful, here it is beneficial; size for size it has more power.

That is why our price is so much less.

And these are the motor cars that cost from $4,000 to $8,000 each!

It has no noisy poppet valves; no noisy cams; no uncertain valve springs; no troublesome valves to grind; practically no wearing parts.

The Willys-Knight, in our opinion, has the least vibration and is the smoothest, quietest and most economical car made.

Have your demonstration at once. Immediate deliveries.

60-horsepower Knight motor; cylinders and valves 4 1/2" x 4 1/2"; high speed magneto ignition; 114-inch wheelbase; folding top; 34" x 14" tires, non-skid rear; demountable rims; one extra; color: Royal blue with ivory stripes; gray wheels; nickel and polished aluminum trimmings; vacuum tank gasoline system; electric starting and lighting system; control buttons on steering column; headlights; one-man wheel top; run-down, ventilating type wind shield; magneto speedometer.
